JOE WILL LEAD.

Campaign to be Opened Within
Two Weeks.

Blackburn And Goebel Will Fire
The Opening Guns In a Victorious Campaign.

Frankfort, Ky., July 25.—Former Senator J. C. S. Blackburn was selected to-day by the Democratic nominees and Chairman Allie W.
Young, of the State Central Committee, to be chairman of the Democratic State Campaign Committee. Mr.
Blackburn, who was present, accepted the place and immediately
prepared to enter upon the performance of the duty of managing the present campaign.

Within two weeks the campaign will be formally opened with a big meeting, at which the principal speeches will be made by Senator Goebel and Mr. Blackburn. It is probable that the opening gun will be fired at Mayfield or some other point in the first district, though this will not be settled for a day or two. From the time of the first meeting, the campaign will be kept red hot by the democrats. Mr.
Blackburn said to his friends at the meeting that he never was more anxious in his life to get into the fight, and that he was going to handle all bolters without gloves. He said that his attitude with reference to Mr. Goebel had been misrepresented, and he intended to show the people from one end of the State to the other that he was heartily for the Democratic ticket from top to bottom.

He said that he would make one of the most active and most earnest campaigns of his life.

The Campaign Committee.

Besides Chairman Blackburn,
there will be two other members at-large on the Campaign Committee,
ex-Gov. Jas. B. McCreary and ex-Congressman John D. Clardy.
There will be two members from each congressional district, and the list will be announced in a few days.
Those from the Louisville district will be Judge Thomas R. Gordon and Mr. Henry A. Bell. Congressman Dave Smith, of the Fourth district, will be one of the most active members.

Each county will be organized by school districts, and it will be the most perfect organization ever known in Kentucky.

Lynched in Pennsylvania.

Pinkinston, Pa., July 25.—Yesterday a negro assaulted Miss Rosaline Davis, a beautiful and popular white girl. Today the brute was caught, fully identified by Miss Davis, and his body immediately riddled with bullets.

Miss Lena Scott, of Evansville, returned home this week, after a pleasant visit to the family of Mr.
W. C. Binns, at Pee Dee.

BROWN A BOLTER.

Ex-Governor Deserts The Party
That Honored Him.

Will Head The Bolting Ticket of
The Tin Horn Squealers.

Ex-Gov. John Young Brown Tuesday announced that he had irrevocably made up his mind not to support the Democratic State ticket,
and declared himself a candidate for the nomination for Governor by the bolters' convention, which it is proposed to hold soon at Lexington.
Gov. Brown said:

"I will accept the nomination if it is tendered me, and shall make it the supreme political struggle of my life.

"There is no moral or political obligation resting on any Democrat
to support the work of the late Democratic convention. Fraud vitiates everything. There were fraud, duress and usurpation in the convention. Before the nomination was made, three-fourths of the delegates, perhaps, had gone home,
most of them in great disgust and disappointment."

Except to a few who were in close touch with Gov. Brown's intentions, his announcement came as a great surprise, as it is supposed that he was a warm, personal friend and supporter of Senator Goebel. He was violently opposed to the candidacy of Mr. P. Wat Hardin. He told all his friends that his great aim in the recent campaign by Goebel, Hardin and Stone for the nomination was to defeat Mr. Hardin.
Their enemy is such that they do not speak. Gov. Brown favored Senator Goebel over Capt. Stone and gave him some assistance but wanted Goebel to withdraw and let him have the nomination. When Goebel declined Brown became very sore and has decided to line up with the tin horn gang who are quitting the party.

FINED IN ONE CASE.

And Held to Circuit Court in the Other.

Lafayette, Ky., July 25.—The trial of George Roach, the negro who shot Israel Joiner, another negro, here last Saturday night, was held before Esq. J. F. Dixon yesterday. The negro was only tried for carrying a pistol and was fined $50 and given in addition ten days.
He failed to pay up and officer
Rives delivered him to the work house keeper, where he will serve 60 days. He was also held to appear before the Circuit Court to answer the charge of shooting and wounding with intent to kill.
Joiner, the injured man, will recover.

Misses Annie and Susie Jones
have returned from a visit of several weeks to the mineral wells at Crofton.

—FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1899—

The bigger the man before the bolt the smaller he is afterwards. For instance, there is the late G. Cleveland.

Gov. Brown will have to revise his "I am a Democrat from away back" speech, delivered at Pembroke four years.

The campaign of 1899 is only a month old, but it has already lengthened the list of Has Beens in Kentucky politics.

Gov. Brown has not profited by the experience of his immediate predecessor, who disappeared down the road Brown is now traveling some three years ago and has not been heard from since.

State Treasurer G. W. Long is to be chairman of the Republican campaign committee, with Jas. F. Buckner, Jr., and Sam J. Pugh as assistants. Deboe wanted to be chairman, but failed to make a landing.

The bolt comes about a month too late. The country Democrats have finished eating their crow and most of them are ready to fight the common enemy. In this county Brown as a bolting candidate would hurt Taylor worse than Goebel.

N. W. Utley, of Lyon, was nominated for Senator in the lower district over Simms and Gilbert. Gen. H. B. Lyon defeated Brightwell for Representative in Lyon county and T. J. Nichols won in the Crittenden and Livingston district.

It looks like no good thing can come out of Louisville. Gov. Brown, for instance, was considered a good Democrat when he got in the Louisville push three years ago, and now look at him. Here he is proposing to head a bolting ticket put out by Jim Williams and John Whalen.

The rainy day must have defeated Mack Melan. Swann, his opponent, had a better chance to get along swimmingly in the race. The people of Calloway will have occasion to congratulate themselves if the new man makes them as good a representative as the brainy young editor.

The Hopkinsville Democrats very much regret the defeat of Senator Panton Simms, of Trigg county, for re-nomination. He has always been a good friend to Christian county and has kept a close watch on all partisan legislation attempted by the Republicans from this county.

This is not the first time Gov. Brown has been an obstacle in the way of party success. In 1896 he opposed fusion and advised Maj. Johnston not to deal with the Populists. Bryan wanted fusion in Kentucky and after Maj. Johnston had refused, other members of the committee opened negotiations with Parker and soon came to terms on a district basis. Maj. Johnston and Gov. Brown, his adviser, were given to understand that the Second and Third districts would make their own fusions on the electors and they reluctantly yielded, Maj. Johnston insisting that he "washed his hands of the whole affair." Subsequently he officially endorsed what had been done.

AS TO GOV. BROWN.

Here is the vote in the last state election:
Shackelford, Democrat.....187,482.
Bailey, Republican.....167,678.
Hindman, National.....9,572.
Parker, Populist.....7,274.
Wallace, Prohibitionist.....1,732.

There are with the whole thing represented.
Bolters, Populists and Prohibitionist got 18,563 votes and still Shackelford had 17,894 plurality. This year the Tin Horn ticket can't hope to get more votes than Hindman received with the support of the daily papers in Louisville that have returned to the Democratic party. Jo Parker's little sidehow has petered out and is no longer a factor in politics. The Prohibitionists cast a smaller vote every year. The conditions are far better than in 1897 when the state went Democratic by 18,000. This year Goebel's majority will not be a vote less than 25,000. In a contest between Gov. Brown and the Democratic party, the man and not the party will be destroyed. As a common bolter he will sink at once to the level of Lindsay and Buckner.

All bolters look alike to those who are tired of Republican misrule in Kentucky. Fall in, boys. Eyes front. Forward to victory. Never-mind the Has Beens.
And the band played on.

The Century for August is amid-summer and travel number. "The Present Situation in Cuba" is graphically stated in a brief article by Major-Gen. Leonard Wood. Jacob Riis writes of "Feast-Days in Little Italy." The first feast described is in honor of some Italian village saint—"just-a-lik-a your St. Patrick here." as one of the celebrants explained to President Roosevelt of the Police Board, who accompanied Mr. Riis to Elizabeth Street, and took five chances in a raffle for a sheep. John Burroughs gives a fascinating glimpse of the wild life about his slabsided cabin near the Hudson River at West Park. In "The River of Tea." Miss E. R. Scidmore writes of the Yangtze-kiang, and especially of the city of Hankow, where Russian and Siberian merchants have supplanted the English, though the tea-tasters, "for reasons not flattering to Russian character," continue to be English only.

KEARSARGE AND KENTUCKY.

First Speed Trial May Occur in September.

Washington, July 25.—The two big battleships Kearsarge and Kentucky are now so well along toward completion that the contractors have called for the eight-inch guns as they are about ready to put on the upper turrets and mount the guns therein. The last report showed the ships about 92 per cent completed, but the call for the guns is such a material advance that it is thought their first speed trial will occur some time in September.

FIRST DISTRICT POPULISTS.

Three Counties Have Instructed For Bud Reeves For Governor.

Paducah, Ky., July 25.—The McCracken County Populist Committee convened here to-night and denounced the Louisville Democratic convention. The delegates to the State convention which convenes at Frankfort July 27 were instructed to cast their votes for Governor for Hon. Bud Reeves, of Ballard county. Ballard and Carlisle counties have voted similar instructions.

Senator Lindsay announced yesterday his appointments in four districts, as census supervisors. For the second district he named E. M. Flack of this city. The appointee was formerly a Democrat but left the party in 1896.

In 1897 he was voted for by the Republicans of the Sixth ward for Councilman, but was defeated by his Democratic opponent. Last year he was appointed by Gov. Bradley, an Asylum Commissioner. The place pays $1,000, with a clerk to do the work.

ONE MORE CASE.

Smallpox Scare is Rapidly Subsid-

One more new case of smallpox is reported from the infested district near Julien. A farm hand, at Carlotta's place broke out Wednesday and was removed at once to the pest camp. All of the old cases are recovering, most of the first five being convalescent. Excitement has subsided and the scare is about over. There is no smallpox within two miles of the city.

Cooking With Gas.

A gas range, if properly used, is cheaper than coal. Why? Because all expense stops when the gas is turned off; because it requires no kindling; no labor in carrying in of coal or carrying out of ashes; because it preserves all the nutritious elements of meats, breads and vegetables; because it is always ready and saves the most valuable of all things—time—and because it saves the wear and tear on human nerves.

The Gas Company will run service pipe to curb free of charge, and will sell gas ranges at ACTUAL COST and do all other work connected therewith at lowest rates. Gas for fuel is $1.25 net per one thousand cubic feet, and illuminating gas is the safest of all fuels. The risk of oil fuel is too great to chance it when gas can be obtained. For further information see T. G. Littlehales, Lessee, Latham House.

Archbishop of Canterbury For Woman Suffrage.

The following is the petition which the Archbishop of Canterbury recently has signed, his name being one of a very distinguished list:

"Your petitioners hold that the recognition of the full rights of women as capable citizens is essential to the establishment of social justice and to the wise and efficient government of the country. Wherefore your petitioners humbly pray that your honorable House will pass a measure securing to women the right of voting for members of Parliament on the same terms on which that right is or may be exercised by men.

The Archbishop of Canterbury is the highest dignity of the Church of England. He is the Primate of all England, has a prominent place in the House of Lords, and by immemorial usage he presides at the coronation of kings and queens, and places the crown on the head of the sovereign. Many conservative Episcopal clergymen will shudder at the action of the Archbishop in signing a woman suffrage petition. The Episcopal, as well as the Methodist and Catholic Bishops, are divided on this question, just as they used to be on that of human slavery.

Woodson's Bugle Call.

Now let us have a lining up of the voters of Kentucky on the one side or the other. Those who propose in the future to cast their political fortune with Bryan and the Democratic national organization, with Blackburn and the Democratic state organization, with Brown, Pryor, Ellis, Goodnight, Rhea, Hardin, Wheeler, Smith, Hazelrigg, Paynter, Clardy, Allen, Murray, Meacham, Richardson and every pioneer silver leader, will stand up and fight for the Democratic ticket from Goebel to Nall. Those who propose to go with Milton Smith, Basil Duke, Jim Helm, Dick Knott, Bill Beckner, Bill Owens, Bill Breckinridge, Lewis Apperson and other notorious goldbugs into the Republican camp with Taylor, Deboe, Hunter, et al., may do so, and should do so quickly for there's going to be a fight.

All the power of the Democratic organization of the United States is going to be turned into Kentucky for Goebel and the entire Democratic ticket and the influence of Hanna's party will be for Taylor and his ticket. The Democrats of Kentucky are going to fight to win and they will win. They go into it with all confidence. It will be such a battle as has never been seen in the old state. A record is to be made which will count for next year. Democrats want all the recruits they can honorably get, but they can not now or hereafter countenance men who are working secretly or openly, directly or indirectly for the opposing party. There are very few of this kind in this section of Kentucky; they are hard to find. We believe their numbers have been greatly exaggerated in other sections. But wherever they are, let them now step out or stand in line. —Owensboro Messenger.

In some of the Swiss valleys the inhabitants are all afflicted with goitre or "thick neck." Instead of regarding this as a deformity they seem to think it a natural feature of physical development, and tourists passing through the valleys are sometimes jeered by the goitrous inhabitants, because they are without this offensive swelling. Thus a form of disease may become so common that it is regarded as a natural and necessary condition of life. It is so, to a large extent, with what are called diseases of women. Every woman suffers more or less from irregularity, ulceration, debilitating drains, or female weakness, and so this suffering is so common and so universal that many women accept it as a condition of nature, and necessary to their sex. But it is a condition as unnatural as it is unnecessary. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription strengthens the delicate womanly organs and regulates the womanly functions, so that woman is practically delivered from the pain and misery which eat up ten years of her life—between the ages of fifteen and forty-five. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women strong and sick women well.

A "Lucky" Lawyer.

Numerous instances are given of the power that Mr. Rufus Choate possessed over a jury, concealing it even at the time he was exercising it with the most potent effect. Mr. E. P. Whipple instances two notable cases of this kind: One resolute jurymen said to another as he entered the "box":

"Now, mind you, there is one man in this crowd who will rot give a verdict for the client of that man Choate. Why, sir, he is the great corrupter of juries. I know all his arts. He is engaged by fellows who wish to subvert justice between man and man. I hate him with my whole heart and soul!"

When the verdict was given for Choate's client, with hardly a discussion in the jury room, the wonder was expressed that this obstinate member of the conclave agreed so readily with the rest.

"Oh," he said, "the case was a plain one. Choate was right this time, and you know it would have been scandalous for me to violate justice because I had a prejudice against the person who supported it. Let him appear before us in a case where he is palpably wrong, and I will show you that I'm all right. He never can humbug me!"

On another occasion a hard-headed, strong hearted, well educated farmer was one of a jury that gave five verdicts in succession for Choate's clients. He said:

"I did not think much of his flights of fancy, but I considered him a very lucky lawyer, for there was not one of those five cases that came before us where he wasn't on the right side."

Mrs. Abbott as Prosecuting Attorney.

The Attorney-General of Michigan has instituted proceedings to remove Mrs. Abbott from the office of Prosecuting Attorney of Ogemaw county, to which she was selected last November. She is a qualified lawyer and was regularly elected, but as the statutes are silent on the question of the eligibility of a woman to hold this office, the Attorney-General has decided that she shall be deposed. She will take her case to the Supreme Court, but if this body shows itself no more liberal in spirit than when it gave its decision against municipal suffrage for women, which had been granted by the Legislature, Mrs. Abbott will not be Prosecuting Attorney of Ogemaw county.

A BIT FROM REAL LIFE.

A Street Farewell Extraordinary, and Its Effect.

In a Manhattan-bound De Kalb avenue trolley car the other evening there happened to be a few individuals of the class who appreciate that kind of unconscious humor which most writers and speakers as Joel Chandler Harris, Thomas Nelson Page and Polk Miller have so delicately and truthfully depicted. There was little enough of the incident itself, but in its significance it was the genuine article, and the little audience got hearty, if somewhat repressed, enjoyment from it.

The car stopped at one of the cross streets near Fulton street, in response to the signal of a colored man, in whose appearance and demeanor there was that indefinable something which suggests the one-time slave. The man's clothing, though cheap, was whole and clean; his black face reflected a curious blending of pride and embarrassment. All this was shown by the glare of the car light under which he stood as the car slowed down. There was another figure at his side. It was that of a bronzed colored woman, also plainly dressed except as to her hat, which was an elaborate mass of flowers, bows, ribbons and so on, representing pretty much all of the colors of the rainbow.

That the escort had something on his mind it was quite apparent, as he assisted his charge to hop herself from the street to the running board, and from there into one of the unoccupied seats of the open car. The conductor, for some reason, hesitated before he gave the motorman the signal to go ahead, and this seemed to be the opportunity for which the escort was waiting. For as soon as his charge was safely seated he drew himself up to his full height and removed his battered hat with a grand, downward sweep, inclining his body forward at the same time with true Chesterfieldian embarrassment. The street happened to be singularly quiet at the time and his adieu was distinctly audible. In the most courteous of tones he almost declaimed:

"Well, good evenin', an' I shall expect 'tuh hear from yuh 'Tus'day by lettah or postal kahd."

Just then the motorman got the "two bells" and the car started. Fortunately, she of the dusky skin and variegated hat sat well forward in the car, else she might have seen that the touch of nature of which city folks are so quick to take advantage. The register showed 16 fares, but there was a good deal more than 80 cents' worth of the sense of humor on that particular car.—Brooklyn Eagle.
